

As an American citizen I support rigid controls on the size of the media conglomerates. It appears that some of the media giants, such as AOL-Time-Warner, are already too big. There seems to be a depressing sameness and one-sidedness in the news coverage, due to a deplorable lack of breadth.